

MIDLANDHR SHINES A LIGHT ON CAPEL MANOR COLLEGE

Capel Manor College has selected MidlandHR's iTrent to provide HR and Payroll services to its 500 strong workforce.

iTrent contract assists growth of environmental college.

As the leading College of its kind throughout Europe, Capel Manor offers a wide range of courses including horticulture, animal care and countryside management. Designed to bring data to life and free up administration time, iTrent will help the College to promote lifelong learning through the appreciation of environmental issues.

iTrent will help the College to promote lifelong learning through the appreciation of environmental issues. The College has chosen to implement multiple operating modules, covering HR management and administration, payroll (including travel and expenses), absence management, employee and manager Self-Service.

Through the use of Self-Service, Capel Manor Colleges' employees will have greater control over their activities and more time to focus on their ultimate goal; providing enjoyable courses which help to promote the understanding of environmental issues."

MidlandHR will also provide a dedicated payslip printing service. Lawrence Knowles, managing director of MidlandHR comments: "As green issues continue to grow in importance, MidlandHR's iTrent is perfectly placed to provide cost-effective HR administration whilst helping to reduce an organisation's carbon footprint.
