

iTRENT OPTIMISES BRIGHTON & HOVE CITY COUNCIL'S HR AND PAYROLL PROCESSES

Brighton & Hove City Council has selected MidlandHR's iTrent solution to host HR and payroll services for its 12,500 employees

As part of a five year contract, iTrent has been chosen as a single, integrated and zero footprint solution, to provide significant efficiency gains. The council will implement multiple operating modules including Self-Service, utilising iTrent's intuitive web-based dashboards.

As part of an initiative started in spring 2008, this development will support the council in achieving its core objectives. In particular, iTrent has been designed to streamline operations, reducing costs, while features such as e-payslips and electronic timesheets will complement the council's drive to reduce its carbon footprint.

in line with council's strategic objectives

Self-Service will help to empower employees and subsequently allow the HR department to focus more proactively on strategic tasks. Integration with web recruitment will streamline the recruitment process and make sure the council continues to attract the best candidates as the recruitment market evolves.

Councillor Ayas Fallon-Khan, Brighton & Hove City Council's cabinet member for central services said:

"This innovative new system will help towards the council's drive in its commitment to becoming more efficient and to embrace the benefits of new technology. As well as offering excellent value for money,
